GSA Meeting Agenda 2/18/15

Stack-taker:
Facilitator:
4:20-4:30p: food, settle in
Meeting start time: 4:30pm

I. Welcome new reps/icebreaker (Facilitator) 10min, 4:30-4:40pm
   A. Introduce facilitator, timekeeping system, taking stack, get two volunteers for cleanup 4 mins)
      1. Description of Facilitator and stacktaker here
   B. Icebreaker question and introductions (all) (5 min)
   C. Vote new reps in (1 min)

II. Presentation on the UCSA Jobs! Professional Development Campaign 45 min, 4:40-5:25p (Toni)

III. Open Discussion (Facilitator), 25 mins, 5:25-5:50pm
   A. What kind of space do we want to create for the GSA meetings/outside of meetings?
   B. What are our top goals/priorities?
   C. Additional items people would like to discuss (can be added to next agenda if not enough time)

IV. General Council discussions or updates, 30 min, 5:50-6:20pm
   A. Funding proposal to support feminist philosopher Professor Maria Lugones' visit to UCSC for the Anzaldua Conference scheduled for April 9th - 11th (Linnea Beckett) 10 min
      1. Discussion
      2. Actions
   B. BDS Campaign 10 min
      1. Discussion—here is an opinion in favor of BDS and opposed
      2. Actions
   C. Militarization of the Santa Cruz police 10 min
      1. Give back the bearcat discussion
      2. Actions

V. Committee reports (10 mins) 6:20-6:30 pm
   A. Take stack and hear reports

VI. Eboard reports (10 mins) 6:30-6:40 pm

VII. Closing open group discussion (10 minutes) 6:40-6:50pm

VIII. Announcements (10 minutes) 6:50-7:00pm
   A. E-board elections will be held May 12-18; self nominations must be received by April 28th and include a name and a short introduction/why you think you would be good in the position (Nadia)
   B. Touch base about the survey results, full discussion next meeting (Whitney)

IX. Closing – remind action items (if any); flag any items that need more time next meeting, or proposed agenda items
Clean up and go home!

Appendix

Additional info on the Anzaldúa Conference and Professor Maria Lugones:
http://ihr.ucsc.edu/event/anzaldua/

Maria Lugones is an Argentine scholar, philosopher, feminist, and an Associate Professor of Comparative Literature and Philosophy, Interpretation, and Culture and of Philosophy and of Women's Studies at Binghamton University in New York. Link to her faculty page:
http://www.binghamton.edu/comparative-literature-old/faculty/lugones-m.html